*The current list of SELT centres is available to view on the LanguageCert website. Candidates can book exams online or buy vouchers (valid for one year) to schedule an exam later.

Besides assisting candidates, LanguageCert is also committed to offering support to all stakeholders assisting UK visa applicants with their SELT exams, by offering marketing materials appropriate to their needs.

Get added value for candidates from LanguageCert

LanguageCert offers candidates complimentary LanguageCert International ESOL certificates and digital badges upon successful completion of their SELT exams.

If candidates achieve an average score of 60% or more in Speaking & Listening or 50% or more in Listening, Reading, Writing and/or Speaking, they will be awarded the corresponding LanguageCert International ESOL certificate(s), regardless of whether they have reached UKVI target scores in each of the language skills tested.

LanguageCert International ESOL certificates are Ofqual regulated and recognised internationally by governments, organisations and educational institutions.

Application type	Other CEFR levels accepted for UK visa	LanguageCert SELT exam
Student visa	Listening, Reading, Writing & Speaking C1	LanguageCert International ESOL SELT C1 (Listening, Reading, Writing & Speaking)
	Listening, Reading, Writing & Speaking C2	LanguageCert International ESOL SELT C2 (Listening, Reading, Writing & Speaking)

This list is accurate as of the last update by LanguageCert. However, the information is subject to change, so UK visa applicants should also check the UK government guidance on English language tests for UK visas at gov.uk for latest information. Applicants are responsible for ensuring that they take the correct test.

Useful tip!

Sponsors may require a higher level of English than the UKVI requirement for a UK visa. Before visa applicants plan their exam, they should be sure to check which exam type and level is right with their sponsor.
